- * Pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 30-2601, interested persons are defined as:
- children and spouses;
 - future heirs if the ward/minor ward/protected person would die without leaving a valid will (brothers and sisters who are adults, grandparents, etc.);
 - a trustee of any trust executed by the ward/minor ward/protected person;
 - if there are no individuals defined as “interested persons” above, include any person or organization named as a “devisee” in the ward’s/minor ward’s/protected person’s most recent will;
 - after death of the ward/minor ward/protected person, interested person also includes the personal representative of a deceased ward’s/minor ward’s/protected person’s estate, the deceased ward’s/minor ward’s/protected person’s heirs in an intestate estate, and the deceased ward’s/minor ward’s/protected person’s devisees in a testate estate;
 - any governmental agency paying benefits on behalf of the ward/minor ward/protected person; and
 - any person designated by order of the court to be an interested person.

If there are no interested persons identified for a ward/minor ward/protected person, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem (Nebraska Supreme Court Rule § 6-1449(B)). The cost of the guardian ad litem may be taken from the assets of the ward/minor ward/ protected person.
