

Completing the Motion and Affidavit for the Issuance of an Order in Aid of Execution (Debtor's Exam)

Use the Motion and Affidavit for the Issuance of an Order in Aid of Execution (Debtor's Exam) (CC 3:26) form when you have been awarded a judgment for money in a court case, but the other party, known as the judgment debtor, hasn't paid yet.

To garnish the judgment debtor's wages or other funds, you must first know where the judgment debtor works and/or where the judgment debtor has money (what bank they use). To get the information, you can ask the court for permission to complete a "Debtor's Exam."

The request to serve the judgment debtor is on the second page of the form.
