State v. Daniel Meints

Misc Submission to Court - Jurisdiction

These consolidated cases are before the court for jurisdictional review. Appellant was convicted and sentenced by the county court in both cases on July 14, 2025. Appellant filed a "Motion to Alter or Amend Judgment" on July 24, which was denied by the county court on August 18. Appellant filed a notice of appeal to the district court on September 15. The district court entered an order on March 13, 2026, affirming the county court's judgment in both cases. Appellant appealed to this court on April 13. The parties are directed to specifically address in their briefs whether appellant's July 24, 2025, "Motion to Alter or Amend Judgment" tolled the time for appellant to appeal from his July 14, 2025, convictions and sentences. See, State v. Boone, 314 Neb. 622, 992 N.W.2d 451 (2023) (where criminal procedure is not authorized by statute, it is unavailable to defendant in criminal proceeding; when unauthorized motion is filed in criminal case, court lacks subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate it); State v. Hanus, 3 Neb. App. 881, 534 N.W.2d 332 (1995) (motion for new trial in criminal proceeding does not toll 30-day appeal time as to order of sentence).
