Appellant. )

No. A-26-0455

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On June 3, 2026, the Appellant timely appealed from the Saunders County District Court's order of probation. However, Appellant did not file a request for the preparation of the bill of exceptions at that time. On June 5, 2026, Appellant filed a request for the preparation of the bill of exceptions without leave of this court.

Pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(2)(a):

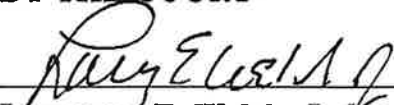

Request by Appellant. Appellant shall file a request to prepare a bill of exceptions in the office of the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken at the same time the notice of appeal is filed. Failure to file such request at the same time the notice of appeal is filed shall be deemed as a waiver of appellant of the right to request a bill of exceptions, unless pursuant to subsection (f) below the appellate court grants appellant leave to request a bill of exceptions out of time.

And, pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(2)(f), late requests for the preparation of the bill of exceptions may not be filed "without leave of the appellate court for good cause shown, which cause shall not be within a party's reasonable control." Appellant has not requested leave of this court or alleged good cause for the failure to file a timely request for bill of exceptions.

Appellant, having failed to allege good cause for this failure, is ordered to show cause, within 7 days of this order, why the appeal should not proceed as if no request has been made.

Dated this 17th day of June, 2026.

These matters are before us for purposes of jurisdictional review. The poverty affidavit filed by the appellant purports to be signed by a “notarial services attorney” in Thailand but does not bear a notarial seal and is lacking any indication that a notarial services attorney is authorized to administer oaths in Thailand. See State v. Haase, 247 Neb. 817, 530 N.W.2d 617 (1995). See also In re Interest of Fedalina G., 272 Neb. 314, 721 N.W.2d 638 (2006).

The appellant has 21 days to provide this court with an affidavit attesting that the purported notary was a duly qualified notary public in Thailand at the time of the signing. Failure to respond shall be cause for these appeals to be summarily dismissed pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-107(A)(1).
