Order to Show Cause re: Jurisdiction

Appeal dismissed for lack of jurisdiction pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-107(A)(1). On March 23, 2026, the District Court entered an order denying Appellant's motion to transfer his criminal case to the Juvenile Court; Appellant filed a motion for rehearing, which was granted. Appellant's notice of appeal was not filed until June 10, following the entry of the order on rehearing. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 29-1816(4) (Cum. Supp. 2024) provides that an order granting or denying transfer of a case from County or District Court to the Juvenile Court shall be considered a final order for purposes of appeal, and upon entry, an appeal must be taken within ten days. Appellant's notice of appeal was not filed within ten days of the District Court's March 23 order denying the motion to transfer. See, also, State v. Cardenas, 314 Neb. 544, 990 N.W.2d 915 (2023) (juvenile transfer statute provides strict deadlines designed to expedite consideration and completion of any transfer from County Court or District Court to Juvenile Court and requires an expedited decision and appeal to facilitate transfer while individual is still under age

IN THE NEBRASKA COURT OF APPEALS

No. A-26-0610

Keyona Sanchez,
Appellee,

v.

Daniel Dibbern,
Appellant.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Appellant Daniel Dibbern has appealed from the July 2, 2026, order filed by the Lancaster County District Court related to a harassment order entered against him. Appellant timely filed his notice of appeal and praecipe for a bill of exceptions. On August 12, an estimated cost for the bill of exceptions was filed noting that the estimated amount had to be paid within 7 days. See Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(4)(b). Appellant failed to timely pay the estimated costs of the bill of exceptions which were not paid until August 21.

Although an untimely payment for the estimated cost of the bill of exceptions has been made, pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(4):

(c) Failure to Make Deposit. If the requesting party fails to timely make the required deposit of the estimated cost of preparation, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit a notice thereof to the Clerk and to the court reporting personnel responsible for making the record. Thereafter, unless leave of the appellate court for an extension of time to make the deposit is granted for good cause shown, the appeal shall proceed as if no bill of exceptions had been requested.

The appellant, having failed to request, and receive, leave of this appellate court for an extension of time to make the deposit for good
