§ 2-106(F)(1) provides that any person who claims the right under the law or a uniform course of practice to an attorney fee in a civil case appealed to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals must file a motion for the allowance of such a fee, citing to the law or uniform course of practice for the allowance of such fee and supported by an affidavit which justifies the amount of the fee sought for services in the appellate court. Any motion failing to cite such law or uniform course of practice will be summarily overruled notwithstanding § 2-106(B)(3). Although Appellee cites to a uniform practice of awarding attorney fees in modification actions, he provides no authority for the award of attorney fees in protection order cases. His request for
