COURT APPEALS

IN THE NEBRASKA COURT OF APPEALS

State of Nebraska, Appellee, v. Charlie Bush, Appellant.	)))))))	No. A-26-0888 ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On October 12, 2026, the Appellant timely filed a notice of appeal from an order of the Lancaster County District Court. However, Appellant did not file a request for the preparation of the bill of exceptions or transcript at that time. On October 19, 2026, the Appellant filed a general request for the bill of exceptions without leave of this court.

Pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(2)(a):

> Request by Appellant. Appellant shall file a request to prepare a bill of exceptions in the office of the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken at the same time the notice of appeal is filed. Failure to file such request at the same time the notice of appeal is filed shall be deemed as a waiver of appellant of the right to request a bill of exceptions, unless pursuant to subsection (f) below the appellate court grants appellant leave to request a bill of exceptions out of time.

And, pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(2)(f), late requests for the preparation of the bill of exceptions may not be filed "without leave of the appellate court for good cause shown, which cause shall not be within a party's reasonable control." Appellant has not alleged good cause for the failure to file the request for bill of exceptions previously.

Appellant also has not specifically identified the portion of the record to be prepared in the bill of exceptions as required pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-105(B)(2)(b), which provides that "the request shall specifically identify each portion of the evidence and exhibits offered at any hearing which the party appealing believes material to issues to be presented to the appellate court for review. "

Appellant, having failed to request leave of this court, allege good cause for this failure, and specifically identify the evidence and exhibits, is ordered to show cause, within 7 days of this order, why the appeal should not proceed as if no request has been made.
