Preamble

The Nebraska Supreme Court (Court) exercises jurisdiction over admission to the practice of law in the State of Nebraska. The Court established the Nebraska State Bar Commission (Commission) to review all applicants and make recommendations to the Court for admission. See Neb. Ct. R. §3-100. The Commission is charged with conducting an investigation into each applicant's moral character and fitness to practice law. The objective of character and fitness screening is to protect the public and safeguard the legal system. The purpose of inquiries into the applicant's background is to produce information necessary to evaluate the applicant's character and fitness. See Neb. Ct. R. §3-116.

It is the applicant's responsibility to provide information as requested by the Commission to demonstrate the applicant meets the requirements for the practice of law as set forth by the Nebraska Supreme Court. See Neb. Ct. R. §3-125.

The Commission conducts a thorough and extensive background investigation. Failure to disclose relevant information will have serious consequences. Information gathered in the course of the investigation is for the limited purpose of determining an applicant's eligibility to practice law and is subject to rules of confidentiality set forth by the Nebraska Supreme Court. See Neb. Ct. R. §3-127.
